

Religious Fundamentalism and the PROSECUW Project
2nd International Conference on Social Sciences, Humanities and Arts
5th December 2021

Within the framework of the PROSECUW project, members of the consortium prepared the 1st Conference Paper regarding 'Religious Fundamentalism and the PROSECUW Project', which was developed by CEMES, COFAC and RESET and presented by RESET at the 2nd International Conference on Social Sciences, Humanities and Arts, that took place on the 3 to 5 December 2021, in Athens, Greece.

The conference was completed with great success and the participation of hundreds of experts, academics, researchers, educators, agents and other interested individuals and institutions.

We would like to thank the organizers of the conference for opportunity to share the importance of our project and its scope for protecting and securing places of worship!

<https://www.icsha.org/>

Accompanied, the Agenda of the Conference, the PPT presentation presented by our partner Dr Eliza Patouris (RESET - Cyprus) and the full Conference Paper.