We are proud to announce that the kick-off meeting of the “Protection and Security for places of Worship – PROSECUW” project has been successfully completed on the 8th July 2021, with the Center for Social Innovation as the Lead Organisation and the excellent participation and contribution of our 4 highly-experienced project partners:

- RESET-Research and Education in Social Empowerment and Transformation
- ULHT (COFAC) – Universidade Lusófona de Humanidades e Tecnologias
- AK – Akademie Klausenhof
- CEMES – Center of Ecumenical, Missiological and Environmental Studies

The PROSECUW project is funded by the Internal Security Fund – Protection of the European Commission, with a total budget of EUR1.5 million and it aims to enhance protection at places of worship in European countries, by setting up cooperation between public authorities, religious leaders, civil society actors, and the local communities, by developing their capacity to counteract radicalization and hate-speech! We look forward to contributing to a more inclusive, just, and receptive EU with our consortium and other local and international actors!

Stay tuned for the upcoming activities!
